Hi Ross

We all have faith in you.

Think back to the day you got your Canadian citizenship and the celebration with the cake everyone arranged for you. Think of everyone gathering around you. We were all so proud of you. Think back to how that day was a demonstration of all the support and love you enjoy. Think of the faces of each person who was there celebrating you and their genuine happiness for you. Think of the deep trust we have in you and how we look up to you. None of this has changed despite the path you have been led down by others.

Please be the professional, moral, ethical leader you are capable of and were before over so many years with us.

In a few years your daughter will be able to form her own judgements. She will know when the truth is being told and when things simply don't ring true. She will know in her heart.

Please think of your daughter. Please tell the truth.

Ross

if you haven't been watching kroeker was really complimentary of you when he testified yesterday. What do you make of that?

Stay healthy.

Hi Ross

hope you are keeping well.

Can't believe the fake news. It is ridiculous they are trying to paint you as having a crack up. The guy from Global is emailing people through linkedin asking if they will tell him about anything odd you did or said when you were here. He is promising complete confidentiality and asked no one tell you he is doing a story. He said he will give you a chance to tell your side for his book.

The way they are attacking the other whistleblower Pinock is gross saying things like he was destroyed by Heeds lawyer. The guy is just trying to tell what he knows.

Hi Ross

got the weird email below in response to my note to you. Don't know if its legit. Makes me really nervous someone else is involved so best we forget this. I cannot afford to have same shitty deal that happened to you happen to me.

dont want to hang onto the papers any longer. If I don't hear back no problem, on Monday I will shred and dispose of.

Going to sign my kid up for your next tennis clinic.

Best of luck and hope things get better for you soon.
