

Ezekiel Chhoa

Vice President, Risk and Compliance

BlueShore Financial, North Vancouver, Canada

Ezekiel has been the head of BlueShore Financial's Risk and Compliance team for the past four years, serving in a multitude of roles including as the organization's Chief Anti-Money Laundering Officer (CAMLO). As the CAMLO, Ezekiel has continued to advance BlueShore Financial's anti-financial crime capabilities and maximizing the effectiveness of the organization's Anti-Money Laundering, Anti-Terrorist Financing, Anti-Fraud, and Economic Sanctions programs.

Prior to joining BlueShore Financial in 2016, Ezekiel led a large financial crime change program at HSBC Bank Canada, where he oversaw over a dozen projects to transform the bank's anti-financial crime policies, processes and systems. He joined HSBC in 2002, and his earlier career included work in enterprise risk management and cybersecurity.

He holds a B.B.A. from Simon Fraser University, and an M.A. from the University of Manchester.