

DAVID LEY
Summary Curriculum Vitae

David Ley
Professor of Geography
University of British Columbia

[REDACTED]

CANADA

Email: [REDACTED]

Citizenship: [REDACTED]

Birth date: [REDACTED]

Birth place: [REDACTED]

Education: B.A., Geography, Oxford University 1968 (First Class Honours)
M.S., Geography, Pennsylvania State University 1970
Ph.D., Geography, Pennsylvania State University 1972

Employment History: 1972-76, Assistant Professor, Department of Geography, UBC
1976-83, Associate Professor, Department of Geography, UBC
1983-2017 Professor, Department of Geography, UBC
2001-14 Canada Research Chair of Geography, UBC
2009-2012 Head of Department, Geography, UBC
2018- Emeritus Professor of Geography, UBC
Visiting Professor: Oxford University (2), Cambridge University, University of Washington, King's College, London, Hitotsubashi Univ (Tokyo), Nijmegen University (Netherlands), National Univ Singapore, McMaster Univ, Univ Neuchatel (Switzerland)

Research Fields: Urban geography, social geography, the inner city, gentrification, immigration and urbanisation, housing markets. From 1996-2003 I was co-principal investigator, and UBC Director, of the joint UBC-SFU Centre of Excellence for Research on Immigration and Integration in the Metropolis (the 'Metropolis' project). The RIIM Centre undertook a $2.8M, 6-year, series of interdisciplinary projects, funded by SSHRC, and other federal agencies. RIIM was renewed, 2002-07, @ $2 million.

Research Interests: Social geography of immigration: transnationalism; housing and neighbourhoods; race and racism; immigrant poverty; integration; citizenship; multiculturalism
Gentrification and housing markets; housing bubbles in world cities (current project)

Grad Supervisions (completed) 9 post-doctoral fellows, 25 PhDs, 36 MAs

Awards and Distinctions: 2017 Honorary Doctorate, Univ. Neuchatel, Switzerland
2017 Jacob Biely Career Research Prize, UBC
2014 Massey Gold Medal, Royal Canadian Geographical Society
2012 Top H-index (citations) in Canadian Geography (Globe & Mail, 27.3.2012)
2009 Distinguished Scholarship Award, Association of American Geographers
2008-11 Visiting Chair of Geography, King's College, University of London
2007 Ralph Brown Day Lecture, University of Minnesota
2003-06 Pierre Trudeau Foundation Fellow
2005 Hooker Distinguished Visiting Professor, McMaster University
2004 Alexander von Humboldt Lecture, University of Nijmegen
(Since 1988) 2003 Distinguished Professor, Peter Wall Institute for Advanced Studies, UBC
2003 Invited Progress in Human Geography lecture, AAG meeting, New Orleans
2001-14 Canada Research Chair in Geography, UBC
2000 Christensen Fellowship, St. Catherine's College, Oxford University
1999 Killam Graduate Teaching Award, UBC
1999 Meyer Fellowship, National University of Singapore
1998 Elected Fellow of the Royal Society of Canada
1996-2003 UBC Director, UBC-SFU Metropolis Centre of Excellence (Immigration)
1995 Charles Hosler Alumni Scholar Medal, Pennsylvania State University
1993 Fellowship, Japan Society for the Promotion of Science
1989-91 Killam Research Prize, UBC
1988 Award for Scholarly Distinction, Canadian Association of Geographers