

DAVID STEWART, BA, FCMA (U.K.), GCMA, CFE, CFI

Partner | Financial Crime

Deloitte LLP, Toronto, Canada

David is a Partner in the Financial Crime practice based in Toronto, with over 24 years experience in conducting white-collar fraud investigations, integrity due diligence and corporate financial crime capability assessments.

David's experience spans across multiple industry sectors where he has advised or been engaged by Board appointed Special Investigation Committees, Regulators, Senior Management and litigation counsel.

David has experience in pattern detection and financial crime analytics, where he has applied entity network analytics in proactively determining potential fraud risks for his clients and has applied these techniques in conducting numerous complex and large-scale investigations.

He currently sits on Deloitte's Forensic Digital Innovation Counsel, whose objective is to assist in the identification, alignment and scaling of financial crime solutions, in support of our global network and clients.