

CV of Inspector Christopher Mullin

Current Employer: New Westminster Police Department

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Years' Service: 24.5

September 2020 to Present: Inspector – Support Services Division (SSD) New Westminster Police Department (NWPD)

Responsible for ensuring all administrative and operational priorities were established, implemented, measured and completed. The Criminal Investigations Section consists of all plainclothes and forensic investigative units, in addition to NWPD's Freedom of Information Unit and our department's legal portfolio.

April 2016 to Sept 2020: Inspector – Combined Forces Special Enforcement Unit – BC (CFSEU-BC)

I had operational and administrative oversight of five provincially mandated investigative teams. In March of 2017, I worked collectively with several stakeholders in developing and implementing a British Columbia's Outlaw Motorcycle Gang (OMG) Strategy. I sat as a Tier 2 representative for British Columbia at a national level and had regular engagement with the Criminal Intelligence Service of Canada (CISC) and the Federal Police Criminal Operations Branch (FPCO) at RCMP National Headquarters for the purposes of informing the Canadian Integrated Response to Organized Crime's national threat picture. I had oversight of CFSEU's community engagement portfolio, which includes media communications, gang intervention and exiting teams and our strategic research unit

November 2015 to Present: Inspector – British Columbia Major Case Management Team Commander Accreditation Committee

September 2015 to April 2016: Inspector – Support Services Division (SSD) New Westminster Police Department (NWPD)

July 2013 to September 2015: Staff Sergeant – Professional Standards Unit (PSU)

January 2012 to July 2013: Staff Sergeant – Criminal Investigations Section

This section is comprised of six units, namely:

Domestic Violence Response Team; Major Crime Unit; Street Crime Unit; Criminal Intelligence Unit; Forensic Ident Services and the Professional Standards Unit (5 Sergeants, 23 sworn and civilian members).

April 2011 to January 2012: Staff Sergeant – Patrol Division

Between April of 2011 and January 2012, I was assigned as the Watch Commander in charge of a patrol watch.

April 2, 2008 to April, 2011: Sergeant – New Westminster Police Major Crime Unit

March 1, 2009: Major Case Management Team Commander Accreditation

On March 1, 2009, I received accreditation from the MCMTC committee as a Major Case Management Team Commander in the Province of BC. My accreditation is current and up to date.

January 2007 to January 2014: Part Time Team Leader – E Division Interview and Interrogation Team

January 2007 to January 2012: Part Time Instructor – Justice Institute of British Columbia (JIBC)

April 2005 to April 2007: Investigator – Integrated Homicide Investigation Team (IHIT)

January 2002 to April 2005: Detective Constable – New Westminster Major Crime Section

January 2000 to January 2002: Project E-Integrate – RCMP “E” Division

I was seconded to the RCMP “E” Division Major Crime Section for two years (Project E-Integrate), a joint force’s homicide task force.

January 2000 to January 2002: Detective Constable – New Westminster Street Crime Unit

January 2000 to January 2003: NWPD Emergency Response Team (ERT)
