

Bio update for Inspector Mullin

Inspector Mullin began his policing career with the Delta Police Department in 1996, before transferring to the New Westminster Police Department in 1998. He has worked in a variety of positions as a Constable, including uniform patrol, the Street Crime Unit, the Major Crime Unit and two and a half years with the Integrated Homicide Investigation Team. In 2002 – 2003, Chris represented the New Westminster Police Department on a two year joint forces homicide task force targeting members of an ongoing LMD gang conflict. Inspector Mullin was first promoted to Sergeant in 2008 and led the Department's Major Crime Unit. In 2009, Inspector Mullin received his Provincial Team Commanders Accreditation. Chris continued his oversight of the Criminal Investigations Section after being promoted to Staff Sergeant in 2012.

In 2013, Chris was assigned to the Professional Standards Unit to lead a significant Police Act investigation until his promotion to Inspector in 2015. Between 2007 and 2015, he was an ad hoc member of the E Division RCMP Provincial Interview and Interrogation Team, responsible for providing subject matter expertise in the area of suspect interviews.

Inspector Mullin spent time at BC's Combined Forces Special Enforcement Unit – BC, the Province's Anti-Gang Unit where oversaw five investigation teams in Lower Mainland and the North District team in Prince George. Inspector Mullin had oversight of the Outlaw Motorcycle Gang (OMG) portfolio for CFSEU-BC and sat on the OMG Tier (2) as co-chair for the Criminal Intelligence Service of Canada (CISC).

Since 2015, Inspector Mullin has sat on the British Columbia's Team Commander Accreditation Committee, a committee responsible for developing and promoting best practices specific to Major Case Management